RELIANCE

Animation

Reliance Animation is an original IP production company established in 2005 with a vision to create fresh content and impeccable execution, bringing the best of both worlds together.

Reliance Animation is an award-winning studio in partnership with noted filmmaker ROHIT SHETTY, best known for delivering IP-driven animation content like Little Singham, Golmaal Jr., Little Krishna, and Smashing Simmba.

Little Krishna was its first 3D production from India, written by Jeffrey Scott, followed by one of the greatest stories ever told – 'Krishna aur Kans,' a theatrical spectacle released in August 2012. Reliance Animation produced an animated version of India's first superhero, 'Shaktimaan.' The studio parallelly worked on some service projects like Astra Force, Ting Tong, Keymon Ache, Daduji, Gaju Bhai, and Tik Tak Tail, to name a few.

The studio takes pride in producing 'The Davincibles' show, which was a co-production with Moonscoop US and Neo Network. With creative energies and exemplary execution coming together, the team recently delivered a harmony show, 'The Twisted Timeline of Sammy & Raj,' which is a co-production between Nickelodeon US and Nickelodeon India.

The studio has won many international and domestic awards and accolades for its aforementioned creations. Little Singham and Golmaal Jr. are among the leading IPs in India and are creating records across platforms. Both have become very popular among kids in a short time. Little Singham is being aired on Pogo India as well as on Netflix, while Golmaal Jr. is aired on Sonic/ETV channel and VOOT.

Animation and VFX will recover at a CAGR of 13% till 2027

1. The Indian M&E sector will grow at a CAGR of 7% and add INR564 billion in three years
2. New media (comprising digital media and online gaming) grew INR113 billion (12%) and now comprise 41% of the M&E sector's revenues
3. Animation and VFX segment fell 9.4% due to global supply chain issues, mainly in the US due to the writers' strike

Tejonidhi Bhandare

CEO, Reliance Animation

As technology democratizes high-quality visual effects, creators are empowered to push creative boundaries and streamline production timelines. However, responsible and ethical use of tools like AI is important. While AI can enhance efficiency, it cannot replace creative intelligence or the irreplaceable human touch and emotion that form the cornerstone of genuine connection and artistry.

- India's Media & Entertainment sector, which includes Animation and VFX, grew by 3.3% in 2024, adding INR 81 billion to reach a total of INR 2.5 trillion (US$29.4 billion).
- The Indian VFX market continues to expand, driven by growing adoption in films and episodic content.
- AI tools have accelerated pre-production workflows, such as storyboarding and animatics, by 30% to 60%, and enabled rapid asset creation for short-form content in one-tenth the usual time.
- Experiential VFX applications are gaining momentum across stagecraft, virtual events, theme parks, and holo-concerts, creating new immersive storytelling opportunities.

Dear Sir,

I am delighted to know about the animated film on the theme of 'Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao' made by your team. I congratulate all the students and faculty of Reliance Education behind this endeavour. I also congratulate Shri. Sameer Dhanrajnikar, the veteran Warli artist who guided the team.

The form of the film which was inspired by the indigenous tribal art form of Warli deserves special appreciation. Narrating a message using the indigenous art forms will surely increase the power of the content's appeal. At the same time, it will increase the popularity of the art form as well.

'Beti Bachao Beti Padhao' campaign is the need of the hour, to ensure there is women-led development. Only a nation whose women are truly empowered can prosper.

I am sure that innovative endeavours like yours will inspire everyone to imbibe the spirit of the campaign and even work towards empowerment of women.

Once again I congratulate you all and wish all the best for your future endeavours.

Yours sincerely,

(Narendra Modi)
